

Rising 9th Grade Debate Instructor

ORGANIZATION: KCS/KCC (Korean Community Services / Korean Community Center)

POSITION TITLE: Rising 9th Grade Debate Instructor (Summer Only)

DEPARTMENT: NJ Education

REPORTS TO: Program Coordinator

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

Founded in 1973, KCS/KCC is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) multi-service organization dedicated to serving the Korean and greater community through social services, education, and cultural programs. Supported by government agencies, foundations, corporations, and individuals, KCS/KCC strives to provide impactful programs that meet the diverse needs of the community.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The NJ Education Department seeks a passionate and skilled part-time Rising 9th-grade Debate Instructor for an intensive two-week summer program (August 18th – August 29th) in Tenafly, NJ. The instructor will teach rising 9th graders twice a week for four hours per day, leading students through fundamental and advanced concepts of debate and public speaking.

Students will learn to construct logical arguments, respond to counterpoints, and develop their public speaking skills. The ideal candidate will foster a fast-paced yet supportive environment where students can build confidence, learn debate formats, and improve their communication abilities.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Design and deliver engaging and rigorous debate lessons tailored to rising 9th-grade students.
- Teach public speaking techniques, argument structure, rebuttal strategies, and debate formats.
- Provide individualized feedback and coaching to help students strengthen their presentation skills.
- Foster a respectful, inclusive, and challenging classroom environment.
- Prepare students for final presentations or mock debates by the end of the program.
- Ensure the classroom is properly set up and organized before and after each session.
